

Task. B2 level.

Write about 200-220 words.

A famous travelling website is looking for interesting places to visit around the world. You decide to write a review about your last holidays. In your review you explain what made you choose that place, which makes it different and what kind of activities we can enjoy there.

And this could well be an idea.

Surrounded by history

Sometimes, when we need to rest after a long year working, we decide to take some days and enjoy the silence and quiet places, but that is not always the case, in other cases we need to be surrounded by our past.

In our three or four last holidays we went to visit beautiful beaches, breathtaking landscapes and huge mountains, but on this occasion, we decided to do something new, something different. We went to Edinburgh in Scotland to see the Festival of Samhain in November, but you can enjoy a broad range of cultural activities there.

It was late when we got there and we decided to go to the hotel directly in The Royal Mile. That is the main street there, it goes from Castle Rock to Holyroodhouse Palace, the main buildings there, but that short journey through the city was enough to see all the beautiful places that we would enjoy the next days.

In our first day, we woke up very early in the morning and started visiting the city. When you are there, you get the feeling that you are in another century, visiting its buildings, streets, shops, passages, stairways. You have a lot of things to visit there such as museums, exhibitions, street markets, palaces, the Castle where you need a whole day to tour it, cemeteries, yes! The cemeteries are different there, not only because they look different than Spanish ones, it's because the Scots feel those places in a different way.

As you can see, you can enjoy a different holiday, without stress, without pressures and discovering a lot of things about our past, a past that has always been there.

Enjoy it!!
